Draw your ideal org chart

Hint: focus on roles within your ministry, not names of specific people

Your Team (cont'd)

What's the mix of knowledge + experience + coaching in your leadership development right now? Is it the right balance for your team's makeup and mission? Try shading the three meters to the right to visualize how "full" each bucket is.

Your Plan

Chart your plan in the table below by placing specific parts of your ministry where they fit into the grid. The columns are different ministry models, and the rows are the types of human interaction involved. For example: a donation/supply closet would fit well as a transactional/intervention element. Use the completed grid to see where your ministry efforts are currently focused and to help you identify how new opportunities might fit into your plan as your ministry grows and matures.
